CHICAGO, Nov. 11.-The wonderful possibilities of blood vessel surgery, with the use of metallic magnesium rings, were demonstrated today to those in attendance at the clinical meeting of surgeons of North America at the Northwestern Medical School, by Dr. V. The visiting doctors learned that it was possible and that it would soon be practical to perform these surgical miracles:

SCHOOLS OF CALIFORNIA

Growth of the California schools during the past two years, as shown by the statistical report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, by an intense and deep seated inter est on the part of the people of the state. There is no other one thing that touches so many people as the

A most encouraging symptom is manifested by the strong undercurrent of public opinion setting toward in the statistics and reports that in the teaching forces of the elementary schools is apparently decreasing. schools of the state last year was less than 10 per cent of the total number of teachers. That is, on the basis of enrollment, there was one man to 350 boys and girls, while the ratio of women teachers to pupils was one to every thirty-seven chil-

The ceasus shows that the total number of children in the state under 17 years of age has increased to 634, 963. But the number of census chil dren, that is, between the ages of 5 and 17, decreased from 469,472 to 460,238. The decrease is accounted for in large part by the more strict the census, which required the parent or person giving the data to

The number of Asiatic children-Chinese and Japanese-is gaining and rose from 3738 to 4048 children on the census roll. The number of Indian census children is 3289, of negro children, 2714, and of white children 450,187.

The number of foreign born children in California under 17 years of age he less than 3 per cent of the total. Deaf children numbered 501, children not vaccinated number 211,-167, and children under 17 years of age who work for wages in California number 15,739.

Of the 460,238 census children, 343,642 were enrolled in the public schools, 32,802 were in private schools, and 83,749 were in no school. The large number of children classifled under the "no school" heading includes children between the ages of five and six, who, though rated as census children, can not by law be permitted to attend school until they are 6 years of age. The number of children under 5 years is 174,725.

While the school census is an important matter because every child on the school census is worth $7 from the state school fund to the district, the enrollment is a vital point, as regards the school's sphere of influence, for it registers the number of boys and girls that come within gunshot of the educational plant. There was an increase of 10,139 children in the enrollment last year, mounting from 312,222 to 322,361.

Although the number of boys, 168,-803, outnumbered that of the girls, 153,558, a detailed statement of the TO CONTROL RAIN enrollment by grades shows that while the boys outnumbered the girls in the lower grades the difference gradually diminished until at a certain point the girls outnumbered the

Thus in the first grade last year there were 5635 more boys than girls; in the sixth grade there were only 296 more boys than girls; in the seventh the number of girls outnumbered that of the boys by 184, and in the eighth grade the lead of the girls was increased to 1162.

One of the most exclusive clothiers in New York sells "Benjamin Clothes" in his Broadway store year after year and retains the custom of smart wearers of fashionable clothes, because the styles are identical with those being worn by Gotham's best dressed men.

It is just as simple a matter for you to obtain "Benjamin Clothes" in Santa Ana as if you were in New York.

If you have not seen the "Benjamin" line of fine suits, come to our store any day and we will take pleasure in showing them. They are moderate in price, but extreme in value.
